A CLEAN HEART CATECHISM.

Sanctification—Can it be Attained?

BY THE GENERAL.

1. WHAT IS IT THAT IS DENIED ABOUT THIS EXPERIENCE BY THOSE CHRISTIANS WHO DIFFER WITH US ON THIS SUBJECT?

It is positively said that we cannot be made holy in this life, but must go on sinning and repenting until death, all admitting that we must be made holy before we can enter heaven.

2. HOW CAN YOU PROVE THAT THIS HOLINESS MAY BE ENJOINED IN THIS LIFE?

My first argument is from PROBABILITY. It seems most likely that God should make provision for the immediate and entire deliverance of men from sin. If a child had got some poison into his body, we are all sure that the father of that child would use every means, as soon as possible, not only to get a physician, but the whole of the poison drawn out. Just so, we think it most likely that God would use all possible means to get the whole of the deadly poison of sin out of the soul of man.

3. BUT MIGHT IT NOT BE ARGUED, IN REPLY TO THIS, WHY, THEN, DOES NOT GOD SAVE HIS PEOPLE FROM ALL THEIR TROUBLES?

Yes, but that is altogether a different thing, because trouble is not always injurious to man; on the contrary, it is often, if not always, a great blessing to those who love God; whereas, sin is evil, and always evil, hateful to God, and a curse to those who harbor it.

4. HOW ELSE WOULD YOU PROVE THAT GOD WANTS TO SAVE MEN FROM ALL SIN IN THIS LIFE?

From the following plain teachings of the Bible, which describe this stage under different figures, and in different ways, as the possible experience of the saints:—

I. As a clean heart—that is, a heart washed from all sin.

"Create in me a clean heart O God; and renew a right spirit within me."—Psa. li. 10.
"Blot out the sins of the heart: for they shall see God."—Matthew v. 8.

"Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean."—Ezekiel xlv. 9.
"Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned."—1 Timothy i. 5.

II. A heart delivered from all idolatry.

"From all your iniquities, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you."—Ezekiel xlv. 12.

III. As being altogether separated from evil, and devoted to God.

"And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."—1 Thess. v. 23.

IV. As living such a blameless life that God Himself shall not see anything to condemn.

"That you may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God without blemish, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world."—Philippians ii. 15.

"Who shall also continue you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ."—1 Corinthians i. 8.

V. As being wholly given up to God to be possessed and used by Him.

"I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, and acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."—Romans xii. 1.

VI. As fulfilling the law.

"Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law."—Romans xiii. 10.

VII. It is described as perfection (that is, perfection in love).

"Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."—Matthew v. 48.

That is, if we are fully given up to lives of love and goodness in our sphere, and according to our ability, as our heavenly Father is in His sphere, we shall be perfect before Him.

"That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."—2 Timothy iii. 17.

"Ye see witness, and God also how fully and fully and abundantly we have loved ourselves among you that believe."—1 Thessalonians ii. 10.

VIII. As following the Lord fully. Joshua and Caleb did this, and went into Canaan.

"And my servants Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed the Lord fully, him will I bring into the land which I swore to your fathers."—Numbers xiv. 24.

HIS LAST GAME AT BILLIARDS.

A True but Tragical Story of an Army Open-Air Meeting.

IN a prosperous little town away down East one lovely evening last summer the Army marched out for their usual open-air meeting, about twenty in number.

Many of them work in the cotton mill, amidst the distracting din of machinery from six o'clock in the morning till six in the evening, leaving just time to hurry home for supper, wash, put on their uniforms, and off to the march; others work in the foundry, while a few wives and mothers leave the cares and worries of home for the usual meeting—a happy, earnest crowd of humble Christians, whose recreation is found in striving to win others to the Christ who has won them.

The Open-Air Meeting.

The officer in charge sings

"THE HANDWRITING ON THE WALL."
So our deeds are recorded, there's a hand that's writing now,
Sinner, give your heart to Jesus, to His royal mandate now.
For the day is approaching, it will come to one and all,
When the sinner's condemnation will be written on the wall.

The soldiers all chimed in with the chorus:

SHALL THE RECORD BE FOUND WANTING, OR SHALL IT BE FOUND TRUSTING, WHILE THAT HAND IS WRITING ON THE WALL?

The meeting concluded with an urgent, simple, straight appeal to the unconverted to forsake sin and seek God before it be too late, and then the Army folk marched off to the barracks.

The Billiard Table.

IN THE billiard room of a large hotel a few hundred feet away a party of men were drinking and playing billiards. Through the open windows they heard the song:

At the feast of Belshazzar and a thousand of his kind,
While they drank from golden vessels, as the book of truth record,
In the night as they revelled in that royal palace hall,
They were seized with consternation—'twas the hand upon the wall.

And again the chorus clearly rang out in the summer evening.

A strange sensation evidently them. The Spirit of God evidently had carried the truth home. Cane were laid aside, the game broken off, the party dispersed, one as he says, to drink and play no more, and up to the present he has kept his word. One remained too drunk to leave, and of course it would not do for the bar-keeper to allow him to go out in this Scott Act town drunk, so he remained until 12:30, when a carriage conveyed him home.

A Tragical End.

HE WAS NOT a poor man; oh, no! one of the wealthiest in the town, his home one of the best and most beautiful.

The children had been in bed hours; his beautiful wife anxiously awaited his return. The carriage drove up to the door. He was assisted into the house. The door closed. A few words were spoken. He makes an attempt to walk up stairs, but falls back dead at the foot of the stairs, another murdered man, the victim of drink.

Oh, liquor, thou slayer of thousands, thou taintful assassin, thou raiser of hell, thou breaker of hearts and damper of souls! How long, oh Lord, how long shall the drink demon triumph, and do so in open defiance of law?

An elegant funeral, a newspaper report of the sudden death of Mr. —, a piteous comment, a day or two and all is over and forgotten: the gambling goes on, the drinking goes on, but, sinner, be sure your deeds are recorded, there's a hand that's writing now.

God entered that billiard hall and broke up that game to give them all a chance, and it was succeeded by one.

SINNERS, PREPARE TO MEET YOUR GOD!

THE HARGRAVES.

Who They Are and from Whence They Come.

STAFF CAPT. HARGRAVE came out of Chelsea, London, England. Was saved 10 years ago last 11 counter. He has been a Salvationist 14 years. Fought as soldier, landman, and secretary for just over five years, then entered the Training Home. He had several stations in the field, was then transferred to the Home Office, International Headquarters, where for 3 years he worked behind the scenes in various departments. The greater part of this time was spent on the field side of things. He was appointed as chaplain (or chief minister) to the Liverpool Province in October, '94, where twelve months of hard work with blessed results were put in, then was transferred to the Canadian field owing to the death of his father, who had been in Canada nearly 10 years, and home circumstances.

HIS STAFF CAPT-IN HARGRAVE

is one of the oldest Salvationists from a length of service standpoint. She was saved when only 8 years of age in the Christian mission. She has grown up with the Army, and it is to-day more a part of her being than ever. Her career in the field has been not only a long one, but very interesting and varied. She had some 24 or 25 stations as a local and Captain previous to her marriage, and in July next will have COMPLETED 17 YEARS SERVICE. Her health will not permit of her doing so much public work as formerly, but as far as she is able, her strength and time are devoted to the interests of the war. Just over two years ago she went under a severe operation, from the effects of which she has not fully recovered yet. It is hoped that the change of climate will prove beneficial.

Staff Captain and Mrs. Hargrave have five little girls, who are firm believers in the Salvation Army. The elder one wanted to go to kneel drill the other Sunday morning, but happening to overstep her time she was disappointed when she wanted to find it was too late, and had a good cry before the matter could be put right.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS.

MAYOR TUCKETT DONATES $200.

THE CORNER STONE of our new "Cathedral" (see worthy Chief Secretary's letter) and shelter is to be laid Monday, February 2nd, by Mayor Tuckett. A number of prominent men are expected to lay other stones in connection with this event.

THE OTHER DAY, while thinking our days of yore, I wondered what had become of Capt. —, who was stationed four miles above me some four years ago, and whom I knew had left the field. A day or two after I picked up a War Cry, and lo! whose familiar visage should I behold? Why, none other than my old friend Capt. Johnson, among the large corps bandmen. Why, Mr. Editor, there are many, yes, very many ex-officers who are fighting away as soldiers, when many of their old comrades think they are of the Salvation Army, to whom I would suggest to send a short letter or a few notes to the War Cry, and let the Salvation Army world see and know that you are still among the faithful.

OUR OLD EX-BANDMASTER, Jack Miller, was lately appointed on the police force here. Jack said to me the other day, "I know if I wanted to be a Christian and have an influence with the men, I must take my stand immediately, which I did." Jack is an ardent worker and attendant of the Police Christian Association, among whom the Army has many friends. Their meetings are conducted by our old War Cry contributor, M. S. N. ex-Ensign Neal.

"I WAS A STIFF high and dry Anglican minister," said the speaker, "for 17 years, until one night I knelt in that dirty Salvation Army hall in Kingston and know for the first time in 17 years that my sins were forgiven. Christ has filled my being ever since."—An extract of Dr. Henry Wilson's lecture in the Y.M.C.A., published in the Hamilton Spectator. Among the many who arose to their feet at the Christian Alliance Convention at the Y.M.C.A., in response to Dr. Wilson's request to all who would be willing to go as missionaries to foreign service did God want them, were an Army Captain, an ex-Captain, Police Sergeant Finch, and Secretary and Mrs. Lusden.

OUR indoor meeting on Sunday a.m. at the Central Fire Station was abruptly terminated by an alarm of fire, when in about ten or fifteen seconds the house was empty, so we knelt down and prayed for God to bless them in the discharge of their duties.

As a result of a number of trances in the fire department from one station to another, two men, Dick Harrison and Ned Case, were sent to the King William street house, and immediately asked the foreman if he had any objections to their having a prayer meeting in the station once a week: the foreman immediately said, "Why, no, not at all, go ahead, so the meetings are held regularly."

Was Mr. Editor, would you believe it, a comrade of our corps went to another town to visit friends, and while there wore his badge (in his pocket.)

MAYOR TUCKETT has given as a personal donation of one hundred dollars toward our new shelter, and ex-Alderman Fred. W. Watkins ditto.

REV. DR. WILSON

Christian Alliance at Kingston Comes Out Strong for the Army.

MANDAN, N.D., INVADED

The "Times" Favors the Army.

MANDAN PEOPLE WILL WISH THE ARMY SUCCESS.

REV. DR. WILSON, of New York, addressed an immense concourse of people in the Army Temple at Kingston, January 25th.
He commended the Army for the great and grand work it has done and is still doing, and stated that the Salvation Army and the Christian Alliance are parallel forces working for the salvation of the world. Said the Doctor:

"I want to testify that the salvation that I found thirteen years ago, in the Army barracks in Kingston, has kept; that I, thank God, have remained true ever since.
That night in November, 1883, was the GRANDEST AND GREATTEST in my life; that night when I lay on my face by the penitent form here, and the story went abroad that 'Dr. Wilson had gone crazy.'"

I AM, TO-DAY, A SALVATIONIST,
a member of the Army, though I don't wear the uniform. It is in my blood, and I advice officers and men of the Army to stand true to the cause, for I have seen that those who have gone out of the Army have not advanced in grace and usefulness, as have those who have stood by the grand old ship."

The Salvation Army has invaded Mandan.
The work here for the present will be in charge of Adjutant Ayre and wife.

Whatever anyone may think of the methods of the Salvation Army there is no question but that they do a vast amount of good. They do not antagonize the churches, but begin their work where, too often, the church stops. The people of Mandan will accord them a respectful hearing and wish them success.—Mandan Times.

$34 Collection at Brantford.

Captain Grace MacKenzie has a "move on" at Brantford. The following is what the Reporter says:

SALVATION ARMY RALLY.
A grand rally of the Salvation Army was held in the Rickle hall on Sunday evening, after the regular church service. Announcements had been made from the various city pulpits, and as a result, the hall was crowded to the doors, almost 1,000 persons being in attendance. The meeting was in charge of Captain MacKenzie, of the local corps, and the soldiers led a rousing song service. Addresses were given by "Major" R. M.
Fullerton, "General" James Galloway,
Rev. E. M. Hamilton, and Dr. Nichol.
A collection was taken to assist the funds of the local corps. Some $34.19 was collected.

THE NEW GLASGOW N. S. BAND.

And What They Have to Say.

"After six years experience blowing brass instruments for Jesus I feel firmer on the Rock. Have learned that the devil does not like to hear us play our cornet or drum, but go on bandmen!
His devil every time."—A. ALCOCK, Bandmaster.

"After eleven years experience I find

Him just the same. We may change, but Jesus never. Glory to His name."—
G. CURNEW.

"I am glad I am saved to-day, and love
Jesus, finding in Him all my need.
Eleven years since I gave my heart to God. He has kept me ever since."—S.
CURNEW.

"I am happy because I'm converted.
Jesus lives in my heart, and I'm blowing a piece of brass for Him."—T. URQUHART.

"I'm glad for the keeping power of God toward me. I'm living to see others brought to the light. Hallelujah!"— RUSSELL.

"Thank God, Jesus saved me from a life of sin, and for ten years I've been praying God's power to keep."—S. PASTO (Candle Sam.)

"I am glad I came to the Lord and sought salvation. By the help of God I mean to go on, and lick the devil every time."—J. DAVIES.

"I live beneath the smile of God. I mean by His grace to be true to God and the Army till I die."—E. SPARKS.

The amount collected by these comrades for Self-Denial was $30.00.—M. W.

Bravo! John.

It is recorded of Mr. Wesley that he was one day walking along a road with a Christian man, who was relating his difficulties, and at the same time saying he did not know what to do. As his companion was expressing his doubts they happened to pass a stone fence over which a cow was looking.
"Do you know," asked Mr. Wesley,
"why the cow looks over that wall?"
"No," replied the friend in trouble.
"I will tell you," answered Mr. Wesley:
"because she cannot look through it. And that is what you must do with your troubles; look over them and above them."

BRICKS, MORTAR, AND SALVATION.

THE PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE
Saturday Night Review gave a capital report of the opening of the new barracks there. According to our contemporary the new barracks is a substantial building, solid brick on stone foundation, two stories in height, the ground floor being divided into quarters for the officers and small meetings, while the upper flat is a large auditorium for the services of the Army.

The following letter deserves insertion for the kindly spirit it displays:—

Grand Association Patrons of Industry of Majestee and M. W. T., Office of the Grand Secretary.

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE,
MAN., 81 '96.
Captain Green, Salvation Army, Portage la Prairie, Man.

DEAR CAPTAIN GREEN,—I received your kind invitation to be present at the opening of the barracks on the 10th. I regret very much my inability to accept and give myself the pleasure. However, allow me to congratulate yourself and your noble little band of co-workers, on the splendid results of your efforts, as seen in the substantial building that you have erected; it is a credit to the contractors, and an ornament to the town, and may in the future, I trust, be the home of many earnest working Christians, and also the birthplace of many souls.

I enclose you five dollars. I would gladly make it ten times that amount if I could afford.

May success attend your efforts, and may God bless, keep, and guide you.

I am, yours in the faith,
CHARLES BRANTYBAWTE.

THE GENERAL IN MELBOURNE.

A Cyclone of Salvation Sweeps 650
Souls into the Fountain.

LORD BRASSEY,
The Governor of Victoria, Shows His Sympathy.

The hundreds of soldiers drawn up in Spring Street on that Friday night, in two long lines, which stretched from the Model School to the Parliament House steps, were primed to explosive point, and it needed only the sight of The General's carriage, drawn slowly up the bonneted and guernseyed avenue, to set going the human artillery of throat and lung.

Then followed the inevitable parade—a repetition of the scenes already witnessed in every place yet visited by The General.

A CIVIC WELCOME.

It was fitting that the welcome meeting should be held in the Town Hall and be presided over by the Mayor.

The appearance on the platform of The General and Staff, accompanied by Councillor Strong, the Mayor of Melbourne, and Messrs. Beazley and Gray, M.L.A., was the signal for a hurricane of applause.

Subsequently the Mayor came forward, and gave a very warm introduction.

THE GENERAL IN ACTION.

As The General rose to deliver his first public address on the occasion of his second visit to Melbourne, the delight of the assembled officers, soldiers and friends, was expressed in no measure of fashion, and for a space of several minutes the applause, which bubbled forth in divers fashions, was liberal and unrestrained. The address itself was magnificent.

The Rev. W. H. Hackett and Mr. Gray moved and seconded the vote of thanks, paying a glowing eulogy to the General's work and character.

THE JUNIORS' CHANCE.

Hundreds of white-bonneted and white-pinnaled girls and eddy-nosed boys made their way to the City Temple on Saturday afternoon, all eager to see and hear their beloved General, who had so kindly undertaken to address the Juniors.

The General's address was delightful. He told of his childhood's struggles after God. He talked of his conversion while still a young boy, and of its influence upon his life. He led the children on through some of the many difficulties that come in the way of the young and inexperienced convert. He counselled the young wisely and encouraged them kindly.

The General did not leave it at that, but encouragingly urged the children to become followers of Christ there and then. And they responded, many of them weeping, and all knelt at the altar with serious little faces. About 150 children were at the mercy-seat.

WITH THE SOLDIERS IN THE TEMPLE.

The sight of an ex-soldier in the attitude of prayer, at a form bestrewn with a smoker's stock-in-trade, was a happy preliminary to The General's meeting.

MAJOR WESSBERG.

The character of any Army meeting may usually be correctly gauged by results; thus the fact that 105 soldiers and recruits came forward in response to The General's urgings, is in itself sufficient guarantee of the impressions produced. This, doubtless, was one of the causes that led up to the

MAGNIFICENT VICTORIES OF SUNDAY.

Sloth and Sunday are inseparably linked, not alone militarily, but by association of idea. The day of rest to the large majority (knee-drillers of course excepted) means a long lie and a late breakfast. Hence the anxious query of those responsible for existing arrangements, "Will the exhibition fill on Sunday morning?" A glance at the curtained interior shortly after the clock chimed eleven satisfactorily dispelled all doubt. In the afternoon the crowd surged in, wave upon wave, until gallery and area resembled a cheap-late excursion train. Shortly after three o'clock "Full house!" was the cry at the gate, and hundreds of intending soldiers turned disappointed away. At night, although the dividing curtain was tured, thus allowing room for some extra thousands, the available space was barely sufficient for the assembled multitudes.

TWO DAYS WITH GOD!

To say that the first meeting of the two days was a success is undiluted language. The influence of the Captains of Sunday was upon both Staff and Field-officers and the soldiers, and the audience freely poured into the large Town Hall.

MAJOR EVANS.

The adjournment was at one o'clock, by which time the heat had become very oppressive. Nevertheless, twenty-six souls came forward seeking deliverance.

A MELBOURNE DUST-STORM.

The afternoon meeting must have made the devil mad, to be whipped under such unbearable conditions; so besides inducing "King Sol" to be overgenerous with his smiles and favor, the devil, previous to the night's meeting, "raised a dust," so that those who came to the meeting had to do so through a Melbourne dust-storm. It came all at once, a squall of wind and dust blowing fiercely along the streets. Still, the vast Town Hall filled, and an atmosphere of great anticipation pervaded everyone.

THE GENERAL ON FIRE.

And a glorious scene of victorious warfare, the night meeting of the first two days closed with forty-nine at the mercy-seat, registering ninety-one seekers for the day.

SECOND DAY.

The General appeared very weary, but entered upon his address wonderfully undisturbed by the Spirit. The results of this meeting were also very, very precious, the first man to volunteer, being a soldier who had seen

Afternoon meeting must have been a doleful affair, to be whirled in such unbearable conditions; so including "King Sol" to be overcome with his and his and his death, previous to the meeting, "rubbed a duck," so as who came to the meeting so through a Melbourne. SIX HUNDRED AND FIFTY.

Ninety-eight souls were registered at the mercy-seat, making 158 for the day, and it was announced, amidst roof-splitting volleys and resolute rejoicings, that 650 souls, including children, had been forward in the eleven meetings in Melbourne. Thus ended the Two Days with God.

GIGANTIC SOCIAL MEETING.

The Melbourne Town Hall has in the past been the scene of many magnificent meetings, but seldom, if ever before, has such a high-water mark been reached in respect to oratory, spectacular effect, and unqualified enthusiasm, as in The General's Social meeting on Wednesday night, November 27th.

ADJUTANT DENNIS.

From a quarter to seven, when the doors were opened, the stream of sympathetic citizens poured in steadily, and rapidly filled every part of the house, and at half-past seven the doors had to be closed.

LADY BRASSEY APPEARS.

There is a movement in the gallery on the right, and a host of society ladies, headed by Lady Brassey, accompanied by Lady Madden, Mrs. Madden, Mrs. Judge Moleworth, and the Mayors of Melbourne, are escorted to their seats by Commissioner Phillips. Lady Brassey is at once recognized, and gracefully acknowledges the lucky charm with which she is greeted by the crowd.

A moment's pause, and the platform party are seen mounting the steps, Sir John Madden leading the way, closely followed by The General, the Governor, Mr. Justice Holmes, Mr. Justice Holroyd, and other gentlemen. The General broke out into the National Anthem, the crowd rose as one man, the cheering was cyclonic, and the applause broke-banked, for Chairman, Governor and General all ranked high in popular esteem.

MAJORITY CAPTAIN SPAGNO.

SIR JOHN MADDEN SPEAKS.

An ideal chairman is Sir John Madden; his appearance commands instant attention, and the kindness and tactfulness of his speech never fail to impress. In stately tones and chosen phrases he introduces the hero of the evening. The effects of The General's speech upon the audience was marvellous, electric, indelible. His pathetic pictures, so telling because so true, melted the heart, the relief afforded by the frequent and incisive flashes of humor only serving to deepen the dark shadows which the operator's master hand cast upon the canvas.

The third sensation of the evening now draws near. His Excellency rises, and the tumult of applause with which he is greeted seems not to quicken his pulse in the slightest, for in slow, deliberate tones he addresses the immense audience, and after paying The General and the Army some very fine compliments, moves a vote of thanks.

Long and long-sustained cheering was the immediate effect of Lord Brassey's eloquence. The General showed his opinion of the economy of time by responding to the Governor's speech, and moving and seconding a vote of thanks to Sir John Madden all in a few sentences.

MEETING IN MELBOURNE SLUMS.

The General's Melbourne campaign closed with a mid-night raid upon the lowest of the low. The Temperance Hall was crowded with the wretches of the streets, brought in by officers and soldiers, and faithfully dealt with about their souls. The Melbourne Herald thus closes its long report of this meeting:—

There were over thirty kneeling at the turn before the meeting came to an end. Some were weeping, some others sobbing audibly, some were half-drunken, some were praying fervently. One was a negro. With the passion of melody which seems to be inherent in his race, he got up from his knees and began to dance in front of the platform. He waved his hat as he danced, and sang as much of the chorus as he could pick up; a curious, wild figure, indeed. The scene between one and two o'clock reached its climax. But gradually the fire of the enthusiasm died down, and in the cool early morning air the immense audience thinned away. The Salvationists felt that they had given the devil a real good hiding and had done some lasting good.

A MELBOURNE DUST-STORM.

Mr. Max Magill, a converted Jewish rabbi, who was led to accept Christ by a careful study of the New Testament, and is now engaged in mission work among the Jews, has joined Foreyth-street M. E. Church, New York.

The Sultan of Turkey is setting an example which ought to shame many of us, since he is sending out Mohammedan missionaries to Africa at his own expense, for the avowed purpose of checking the Christian advance in that continent. Evidently he does not think the missions of Africa have been failures.

A GOOD THING FROM THE NEW YORK WAR CRY.

WE Do not use God, but God uses us, providing we allow Him to have His own way. "Known unto God are all His works from the beginning of the world" (Acts xv, 18). The Holy Spirit uses His own instruments and brings to pass His purposes, how and when He pleases. The creature may presumptuously try to dictate to the Creator certain methods of procedure in soul-saving, and try to confine Him to certain channels of labor; but God is God, and will govern the world by His own methods and do as He likes with His own.

God hath called from nothing the Salvation Army. (1 Cor. i, 27). He "hath chosen the foolish things" of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; . . . that no flesh should glory in His presence."

God, without the friendship or approbation of the world, made the Salvation Army a success. Now that it is an acknowledged success, the world shifts its attitude and professes itself friendly; but as a condition of a continuance of friendship, demands that it must dictate the policy of the Army and have a voice in its government. The Salvation Army could have had even the devil's friendship long ago on these terms. Stick to first principles. Loyalty to the Salvation Army means loyalty to God, for the Army is of God. Keep to the Lord's friendship by obedience to His will. Be holy, be humble, be brave, be a Salvationist. Beware of the world! Know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever, therefore, will be a friend of the world is an enemy of God. (James iv, 4)

The Great "Now!"

THE GREAT NOW at his is here. It is ours.

What shall we do with it? "Keep it!" exclaims the idler, who seems to think he is overburdened with an excess of time. Count the cash in hand and pay the saloon-keeper for permission to waste part of it at the bar. Hire an operative star to sing some of it away. can trump Time's best hand without fail. Miss Gossyp, always accommodating, is always ready to get rid of an unlimited amount; but alas! ye busy man, otherwise business man, is woefully deficient in time-to think of Christ and eternity, so stands the case with sinners and infants.

BUT WE, the saved! What shall we do with the great NOW of life? Dream it away? No! Permit our thoughts and energies to be turned to unimportant side issues? No! Undervalue and neglect present God-sent opportunities because they appear insignificant, and as a vain to competence, promise to astonish our souls with marvellous deeds in the near future? No; emphatically not! Thus will we do with the great NOW if we are wise; we will consecrate it absolutely to God; we will carefully gold-dust of time—and giving each one the value of action make it tell the future that we used it for the glory of God our Creator, by laboring for the temporal and eternal good of humanity. Then, as the days go by, and we relegate to the past our daily deeds in Christ, our life shall round out symmetrically as a perfect and complete whole, earning the "well done" of God our Saviour, and the applause of angels.

SALISBURY'S GREAT DECLARATION.

I care not how much we are isolated if we are united," said Prime Minister Salisbury, in his speech to the Nonconformist Unionist Association, at London, on January 31st, after making reference to the recent patriotic demonstrations in the British Colonies in the face of threatened foreign complications, and herein the British Premier touched on one of the great, grand principles governing the utility of the Salvation Army. A few years ago but one little family group of Christians, organized on the family model, the Army has gone on spreading and developing, as the Holy Ghost within, and the urgent need without indicated, till to-day its sound has gone out into all the earth with a witness and splendor of glorious salvation triumphs in its train that cannot be explained away except by the acknowledging of the truth. Best of all, hugo as we are, there is the same unity and harmony as of old, as witness the great Territorial changes now in progress. Since eighteen months ago it has been understood that in the spring of 1896 these great changes would occur, and for some time far-well orders have been in the hands of the officers chiefly involved, and yet, without exception, these officers are found ready to carry out the General's wish, and rush to any part of the battlefield for which he thinks them best fitted. Yes, thank God, united we stand, and united we are, and while thus united in God we need fear no foe. Oh, for an advance through the instrumentality of these great changes that will send our universal Army forward by leaps and bounds towards the goal of a penitent, kneeling world!

THE AUSTRALASIAN CAMPAIGN.

772 men, women and children, knelt at the penitent-form during the General's Melbourne campaign. Blessed news, this, and thrice blessed work to be engaged in. Cuv readers who have followed our brief reports of the General's doings in Australasia will have rejoiced with us in the very wonderful and God-glorifying doings of our apostolic veteran. The tour seems to have gone one better at every fresh centre visited; thus the Tasmanian excelled the New Zealand campaign; again, the Brisbane, Queensland, doings were still better; than came Sydney, N.S.W., with its marvellous records, so marvellous as to elicit special comment from the General; and now Melbourne's 500,000 people have been stirred as reeds shaken by the wind. Glory be to God!

A foot ball match will draw 25 000 onlookers in Melbourne any Saturday afternoon. A similar sport-loving, pleasure seeking spirit also largely exists throughout the Australasian colonies. Thank God, these masses of kindred population in the Northern Hemisphere have been compelled to stop their business and pleasure and hear, in the person of our General, what Jesus Christ has to say to them.

We glorify God for the Pentecostal wave which has accompanied the General on this campaign, and for the thousands who have been powerfully touched by the Holy Spirit through his instrumentality. Should the crack of doom sound suddenly in the near future, it is at least a cause for satisfaction that the Army's witnesses have gone forth, and that we do at least know that the crowds who will, like the foolish virgins, knock when the door is shut, will be in their sad predicament, not because they could not, but because they would not have it otherwise.

STAFF CAPT. BRINGLE, who was in the New York Cry about a year, has written a letter to the "Cry" in which he has expressed his admiration for the principles of the Army, and his belief in the organization, and he has offered to give up his position in the Army, and to work for the Army, by voluntarily assuming responsibility in his own corps in his youth, in the immense advantage of spiritual responsibility upon a man.

Therefore, he has thoroughly organized his corps by the appointment of a set of local officers, and watches these local officers, insisted upon reports from them, and trained as systematically and carefully as possible.

General Grant or Sheridan, or other authorities. But let us not argue that this was mere "red" with him.

He watched over the spiritual condition of the local officers with solicitude with which a teacher for mother will watch over her child. He made them feel their responsibility for souls. If one of his sergeants happened to be guilty, he would have some young convert or soldier pointed out to him, and he would have him feel his responsibility for souls.

THE FIELD OFFICER'S CORNER.

THE LATE CAPT. YORKE.

STAFF CAPT. BRENDEL, writing in the New York Cry about the late lamented comrade says:- "He understood the principles of the Army. He believed thoroughly in its organization, and he applied the principles of its organization in all his work. Having been blessed himself by voluntarily assuming responsibility in his own corps in his youth, he saw the immense advantage of placing spiritual responsibility upon others. Therefore, he thoroughly organized his corps by the appointment of a full set of local officers, and watched over these local officers, instead upon reports from them, and trained them as systematically and carefully as General Grant or Sheridan drilled their subordinates. But let me underline that this was more 'red tape' with him.

He watched over the spiritual condition of the local officers with all the solicitude with which a tender, loving mother will watch over her child. He made them feel their responsibility for souls. If one of his women sergeants happened to be gossiping and hurt some young convert or comrade by the careless use of her tongue, he pointed out to her her position as a local officer, and her responsibility, showed her that the careless use of her tongue would damn souls, and so worked upon her as to get her to see the tendency of gossip, and to go to the injured comrade, and nurse it back to spiritual health and comfort again. So he trained spiritual fathers and mothers in Israel, and built up corps of intelligent workers about him.

It is only just to add that Captain Yorke was a Canadian officer, one among many sent from our fair land to help the S. A. in the States.

THE WAR CRY.

Our 'Move On' Manifesto!

THE COMMANDANT AND MRS. BOOTH'S

LAST THREE MONTHS TO BE MARKED BY A UNIVERSAL ADVANCE.

EVERY OFFICER AND SOLDIER TO THE FRONT!

DELOVED COMRADES -

WE are certain that with us you will desire to make the very utmost of the remaining time we are permitted to fight together.

So far you have responded with splendid vigor to every effort we have laid before you for the progress of Army work, and this makes us bold to believe that the last effort will be the best of all.

We have thought much as to what could be done. We know your energies have been fully taxed in connection with the magnificent Self-Denial battle you have just fought, and your hands will be full with the present War Cry Boom, but after consultation with chief officers, we think that the program briefly stated under will meet with your enthusiastic sympathy, and that you will carry it to a triumphant completion.

The plan and method of battle will be fully explained in a special hand book to be issued to each officer and soldier. Every man is to do his duty, and every soldier and recruit will know by the help of instructions given lovingly into his or her hands, exactly what that duty is.

What we propose is as follows:-

1. Rise in the circulation of the War Cry from 20,000 to 40,000 per week.

2. Launching of the two-cent War Cry for Ontario, the East, and Newfoundland, and the permanent rise in its circulation throughout the Territory from 20,000 to 10,000 per week.

3. 500 Souls.

3. A desperate attack by every corps and every individual officer, soldier and recruit to obtain the salvation of 3,500 souls.

1,750 Soldiers and Recruits.

3. An equally energetic effort to add 1,000 soldiers and 750 recruits to the rolls.

200 Notorious Sinners.

5. Every corps in the Territory to fix upon one or more of the most vicious sinners of the places where they operate, and by systematic effort, seek to bring such to Christ.

1,500 Juniors.

6. Every corps to carry out a well-defined program for the immigration and development of the Junior Soldiers' War. The Territory to add 1,500 Juniors to the roll.

200 Candidates.

7. Two hundred candidates to be raised throughout the Territory of whom not less than a certain specified number shall be eligible for acceptance.

Reconciliation Week.

8. Reconciliation Week to be energetically carried into effect according to plans laid down in the hand-book.

2000 New Box-Holders.

9. The proper inauguration and development of the Social League, a scheme by which the Field as well as the Social work is to be assisted, also the extension of the Light Brigade, by the addition of 2,000 new Box-holders.

The Talent Scheme.

10. The universal adoption and energetic carrying through of the Talent scheme for the benefit of Officers' Clothing Club and Pension Fund.

Farewell Memorials.

11. In addition to the above it is intended that the Territory should undertake the following schemes as a farewell memorial:

A new and central Headquarters at St. John, Newfoundland.

Purchase of a new Rescue Home at St. John, N. B.

A new Citadel and poor man's shelter, at Hamilton.

A Rescue Home for Hamilton.

A Rescue Home for Spokane.

The formal dedication and opening of the Great Central Farm Colony near Toronto, lately purchased.

25 New Corps.

12. Opening of twenty-five new corps.

Further and fuller particulars will be given next week, and by means of special Hand-books.

The program may look large, but we are certain that if once more we rally together, God will enable us to do it. We have never yet known defeat. Let us arise in fervency of spirit, and we shall win with a shout.

Beloved officers and soldiers, may we rely on you? Will this final charge together be the crowning effort of all? We believe it shall.

We call upon each one of you to take your part, to fight your own individual battle, knowing that no other man's effort but your own can win you the reward.

In any case you may reckon upon the utmost efforts and capacity of

Sir Gordon holds eminently favorable opinions of the Salvation Army Social Work, and presided on the occasion of the anniversary celebration of the South African Farm-Home for ex-prisoners.

GLORIOUS OLD DRUM.

His Plan of Business went Bung.

SYDNEY, N. S.—God is bringing Sydney unto Himself. Since last report, FOUR were saved.

In the Sunday morning Holiness meeting, FOUR SOUGHT and found SANCTIFICATION.

The search light is now turned on, and there is no darkness, therefore, the Shepherd can see to bring the strayed sheep into the fold, Amen.

One night the past week, a very hard case came to the penitentiary, while under the influence of liquor, he is doing better, but not saved. Pray for him. The following night another young man, while

STANDING AT A BAR-ROOM DOOR, heard the sound of our Army drum, and though intoxicated, came to the barracks where he sought God: and is now marching with the free.

We cannot always see the fruit of our labor; for instance, a certain young man in Sydney, had decided that he, in company with another, would go in the retail liquor business, but when all arrangements were about completed he commenced to attend the S. A. meetings, where he was convinced of the great wrong he was about to undertake. So he cancelled all former agreements, and I am glad to report that the earth is free from a man hell through the agency of the S. A.—Per K. J.

The experiment of trying to pass for a Christian without Jesus Christ accounts for so many pitiable weaklings on church rolls.

AT DOUBLE QUICK TIME

HAVE THE
U. S. A. FORCES MARCHED
DURING THE COMMAND OF Commander and Mrs. Ballington Booth.

Here Are a Few Indications.

THE LATEST NEW YORK CITY gives a summary of the onward march of the United States forces during Commander and Mrs. Ballington Booth's term, and to say the least it is a magnificent one.

We have space only to notice a few points:

AUXILIARIESHIP.

6,000 of America's pick people are enrolled in the Auxiliary League, who protect and defend the Army, not in name only, but by pen, voice, and pocket book.

OFFICERS.

There are now 2,000 commanding officers.

WE GAINED IN THE CITIES.

Our position in the big cities is unique, for instance, San Francisco has 10 corps, Philadelphia 18, Chicago 27, New York and neighborhood 40.

ARMY AND RESERVE.

While five years ago the Army in the States had no Arm and Reserve work, there are now two children's nurseries, one children's home, one receiving home, five rescue homes and fifteen arm posts. This work is commanded by sixty-six commissioned arm and reserve officers. During the past year alone 13,333 hours have been spent visiting the sick; 6,008 little children have been nursed and cared for; 11,896 garments have been stitched and mended, and given to those children perishing with cold for want of clothing; 13,406 meals have been given to the starving in wretched abodes; 687 have been cared for, and few can realize adequately all this last represents; 1,103 meetings in saloons; 28,138 persons have been personally dealt and prayed with; 14,031 separate saloons and dive visits have been made; 10,402 families visited; and no less than 88,893 persons separately dealt with in the streets.

MAMMOTH CONGREGATION.

In the 600 corps where the Army labors, there is represented an attendance (reckoning weeks) that attend more than twice per week of 1,500,000. What an opportunity!

"WAR CRY," THEIR CROWD.

The growth of publications has been equally encouraging. A stranger visiting Headquarters expresses astonishment upon finding an Editor in Chief, and three Editors of different weeklies. Nine years ago there were but two War Cry. One printed on the Pacific Coast monthly, and another in New York, with a comparatively small circulation. To-day there is a twelve page War Cry in San Francisco, with a circulation of 15,000 or 16,000; a Swedish War Cry of twelve pages, with a circulation of 6,000 or 7,000; a German War Cry monthly; a Young Soldier weekly, with a circulation of 31,000; the combined American War Cry, with a circulation of nearly 90,000 copies.

THE "NONQUENON."

Though only in its youth, and being ten cents per copy, it has a circulation of upwards of 10,000 per issue.

UNITY THROUGHOUT THE NATION.

One of the brightest sides of the light in the U. S. A., is the low and unity that exists from "Frisco to New York, from Texas to the borders of Canada. How beautifully this has been typified in the stones dug from the mines of every State and clustered and fused together in the Memorial Building! No one will ever forget the moment of moments when the audience, during the great opening Congress, sang amid tears and rejoicing:

"On, on, united hand in hand."

We are sure that could Mrs. General Booth have looked from the battlements of Heaven upon the scene she would have felt the united devotion of hearts and lives was more precious than the raising of a great temple of stone.

INCREASING TRAFFIC.

As an instance of the amount of trade done during the last year alone $75,042.00 was turned in, being double the amount of trade business transacted in the year 1893.

THE WAR CRY.

"EVEN CHRIST PLEASED NOT HIMSELF."
(MY MOTTO)

FROM

Mrs. Booth's Office Table.

By wire:

HALIFAX

Commandant and Mrs. Booth:
Fifteen officers assembled at Halifax Harbor regret your leaving; pledge love and loyalty to the flag.

ESSON PAYNE.

A dear officer who, since the time she alludes to, has proved her reality by a life of loyal devotion, writes:—"To add to the sorrow of your leaving us, oh, how bad I feel as I recall the time when your confidence and trust in me was shaken, and it was all my own fault! How I wish I could blot it out of my memory! But it is over there, vivid and fresh, causing me many a headache and many a tear. Your kindness I have not deserved. How I shall miss you both! Your presence has been an impetus to me. I am so anxious you should look upon me, not as a faltering or wavering soldier, but as a real true woman-warrior, who will, by God's help, die at her post."

ESSON OULIVIE says: "For this year my heart craves to be more like the Master, and to carry out His will daily. God is helping us here, and in the coming War Cry boom you can depend upon me doing my utmost to reach the goal."

ESSON GALT, of Windsor, N. S., gives utterance to a note of praise for the way God has led her: "You can count," she says, "I think, on many of us being true to God, true to the Army principles, and that, by God's grace, we shall neither flinch nor falter. I feel, myself, I am His, all His, for service anywhere. I am continually praising God for the privilege He has given me of working and fighting and conquering for Him, and by Him. This is a glorious warfare! I appreciate the honor of being actively engaged in the Salvation Army, an honor I would exchange for nothing upon earth."

ANOTHER officer almost echoes the last note: "Oh, how thankful I am that God has called me into the Army to work for Him! I would not exchange my position for any other in this world! This wonderful privilege I appreciate it as I never did before. I am so happy in my God given work! He has called me, and I am going to be faithful to Him until death. I have thought so much lately of THE FAITHFULNESS of God, a covenant-keeping God! How wonderfully He has kept me to mine! I don't want you to have a moment's anxiety over me. I want to be true to every one, true to those above me, as well as true to the poor sinner. I want to be a soul-winner, a woman of God, an apostle. I have set my heart on being red-hot, to wake the people, and win the lost." We are having large crowds and souls."

Mrs. ESSON MYLES gives a glorious testimony: "Thank God, great victories have been won on the side of truth and right! God is very precious to me; never have I felt more of His presence; never have I realized more of His love in my soul, and never have I seen and felt the need of being more and more a thorough warrior. Oh, my heart swells with gratitude to God for ever having called me to be a Salvationist! I love the fight. It is a true delight to me to be able to minister to any poor soul who needs help—and there are so many crying out for our assistance. . . . God is saving souls."

ANOTHER of our generous medical stand byes writes from Montreal, where he has, with unwearied kindness, early and late, freely attended the inmates of the Rescue Home, and in reference to all he has done for us, Dr. Ruddy exclaims: "I only wish I were really able to be of some greater help, but I suppose if one does the work at hand, and in His name, it may be of service, especially when one remembers the ocean is made up of drops, and it is not given to all to do great things. I shall always be glad to help the Army in any way that lies in my power, for I have thorough faith in it."

WHAT a steadfast life of faith and wisdom and self-sacrifice is needed to train a family for God and the war, as Mrs. Staff-Captain McMillan is doing, with her husband all the time in the thick of the fight, with her eldest son, the Ensign, absorbed in all the financial work of Headquarters, and five other children following after as fast as they can. No wonder she writes: "I feel God has given me a great charge with my five boys and one little girl. I am conscious of my responsibility to Him and our beloved Army in bringing them up, so that when He calls me home these children shall be officers to fight on. I look forward and see them, by faith, working for Him, and it gives me joy even to think of it. You can depend on our loyalty to God, the Army, and our General."

fairly well attended. There is to be a J. S. enrollment soon.

Says the London Editor in a personal letter:—"The Commandant's visit was electric! He came at the right moment, and left with our hearts in his."

Minutely yours,
ALMA M. NICHOL.

Brigadier Margentin sends out The Argosy, a newspaper, to every Captain in his Province weekly.

Some of the W. O. F. officers will call the weekly Provincial Fly Round, the Argosy, the Argosy, while others prefer the term Alligator.

MAJOR COLLIER is loud in his praise of Ligar street soldiers. They sing, cheer and carry on anyway they feel led. These souls sought salvation publicly during the day.

MAJOR READ at DOVERPORT—Dedicated two babies at Doverport. They were Bro. Roberts' little ones. The one dedicated five years ago by the Major on the platform wall, happy and singing. There was also a full house and two good conversations, a man and woman. The brother cried bitterly for salvation. This is the corps where the four sisters were, all officers have changed. They sang a quartette.

WALKING MIRACLES OF GRACE.

Army Work in Brantford Ought to be Helped.

A STIRRING APPEAL IN THE PRESS.

M R JABEZ GALLOWAY, writing in the Brantford (Ont.) Exporter, of July 21, after remarking that to a majority of persons the Army has become an old story, kept in mind chiefly by a big dam and red shirts, says:

"Facts warrant the statement that during the past quarter the work done (in Brantford) will compare favorably with that accomplished by any church in this city, while the appliances for executing the work are very meagre compared with those of any other religious body in Brantford. During the past three months no less than THIRTY-EIGHT PERSONS HAVE PROPOSED conversion, and to my certain knowledge they haven't all been baptized yet by a long way, nor are they giving indications of having been converted merely to sweep kitchens and old clothes. Several of the men recently reclaimed are walking miracles of grace on Brantford streets-to-day. Some of them are under great strain, hungry and cold, wondering what is going to happen next. The chance are you could not get any of these recent converts into our churches, not that we would not be glad if they would only come to us and get saved, but they don't come, and we do not appear to have the knack of going after them."

Mr. Galloway has, too, a good word to say of the officers (Captain Grace MacKenzie and Lieutenant):

"Surely the love of Christ must circulate them, and the power of God uphold them, or they would faint by the way. . . . They are obliged to collect and meet all running expenses, and if there is anything left they can have it. I think it safe to remark that, as a rule, 'if the Lord can keep them humble the people can keep them poor.'"

The officers had only received food and cash to the value of $32 in return for the grand self-denying work of the last three months, out of which they had given fifty meals to others poorer than themselves, referring to which facts the writer adds: "If anybody wants to find out what heaven is like before they die, all they need do is to give Captain MacKenzie a hand in keeping the heads of a lot of those sinners, saved by grace, above the water mark. Pants, vests, coats, and cash help mightily. Sweep tickets are good, and it would pay any Christian man to have some on his clothes—but sweep won't keep out the cold very long when a fellow has no fire at home, or is out on the street with the mercury below zero."

We are glad to know the appeal was not in vain.

With the Wags.

FINANCIAL NOTES AND ITEMS.

This is CAPTAIN MACKENZIE, the young man just appointed by the C. M. to look after the interests of the Auxiliary Social League, and Light Brigade, in the North-Western Province, under Major Bennett. One him a hearty welcome, for he is a first-class soldier.

THANK GOD, all those interested in the welfare of the Army are not dead. No, not by any means.
 Still there are loyal true hearts all round the Territory, who practically love the Army's work and give to its support, while there are those who "cry" and "shout" on the old string of "too much begging," yet in many cases they are not over large givers themselves. "The liberal soul shall be made fat."

Now for a few facts to prove the former part of the above par. J. B.
 F. writes:—"I enclose $5 which is to meet my subscription to the Canadian Social League." M. R. also writes:
 "If you can, you might send me a few pamphlets of the Social League, and perhaps through reading them some of my friends may be persuaded to become members." Yet another:—"I am delighted that God has permitted me, despite weakness and suffering, to assist a little in self-denial work, and tell you, I do everything in my power to assist Salvation War, such as giving, praying, and distributing your God-inspired literature in back woods, settlements and log-cabin." Captain Fitch writes:—"No doubt you will be glad to hear that last week was one of the most successful we have had since traveling with the lantern."

MRS. MRS. MCDONALD, of Win-ditor, N. S., has sent her auxiliary subscription, and been welcomed into the auxiliary ranks. God bless her!
 Brigadier Margotta has got a G. D.
 M. box put on the shelf of the Loudon Railway Depot. A Stratford lady saw it there and writes thus to us:
 "If you will forward to me a couple of those tin collecting boxes, I will have my two boys contribute to them.
 I am teaching them to give of their substance to the Lord, and I wish show tin boxes in London. Salvation War. They are the proper thing, spread them around." This person believes in the S. A. How do the following words strike the critic? "They are addressed to the Commandant and come from a Michigan settler." "Please find my free-will offering to be used in the good cause as the great God may direct you." This gentleman sends $5.

JUST A WORD to our P. O.'s, D.O.'s F. O.'s and L. A's. The Commandant has included in his "thirteenth month's advance" manifesto, an increase of 3,000 new box holders. Here is work for the Provincial and Local agents.
 Then our leader is to write up the Social League, which scheme should have the hearty co-operation of all the field. Sims and Seibel are advancing on this line. They have got a "move on," and have sent us some names, but "move" must be the watchword.
 The greatest need of all is a crowd of good, devoted, sincere and loyal them for us. Mrs. Bend, when in all probability will materially help the scheme. Other unions might fol-of these societies have a Light Brigade in its folds.

Now for a great move-on in the G.

B. C. Jottings.

Good for Lieut. Ziebarth—Commissioning Galore—Oh-h —that Blizzard.

VICTORIA CORPS is all there, and the land, newly commissioned, will do well under Lieutenant Townsend and Band-Serg. Bent.

Lieutenant L. Ziebarth is a famous War Cry seller, and has not only taken the championship from Windsor by selling 350 War Crys on the street in a day, but has for some time past sold in larger average on the street than any other officer or soldier in the Territory from ocean to ocean.

(The Major evidently has not seen our latest news.—J.B.)

Here is an anecdote told by Sergeant Hohler, of Victoria: Her two little girls were painting the illustrations of the War Cry, and one of them had chosen bright colors for the devil, when her sister said:—"O, you are painting the devil bright, that's wrong, paint him black, quick."
 Good! Always paint things in their proper color.

Anecdotes had been called for when a comrade rose to say that he "did not know any anecdotes, but he was washed in the blood." Well, that is the best antidote for sin.

Three souls sought salvation while at Victoria, and four at Vancouver.

IN MAJOR FRIEDRICH'S DOMAIN—MOUNT RAINIER, IN THE CASCADE MOUNTAINS, STATE OF WASHINGTON, 14,500 FEET HIGH.

may they be kept spotless until death, and become valiant warriors of the cross.

Captain Standbury received a right royal welcome at the Royal City of New Westminster, and may the catch many big fish while there.

Vernon and Armstrong have been visited and the courtesy extended to them. They have been without officers for a year, but an Outrider District will take them in very shortly.

I commissioned, I, a row of hand-men; 2, a proper War Cry brigade;
 3, a Light Brigade; and 4, a number of old sergeants. Victoria will be worked for all they are worth, and an all-round advance is sure to be the result.

Nanaimo Band is doing well. The soldiers and officers are in for fighting. Business is not very brisk here and the mines have worked very little, making it very hard for many families, but prospects are brighter now.

Shelter and woodyard, at Victoria progressing, and things run very nicely. It is proving a great blessing to many. Cadet Hildreth, the new cook, turns out a good bill of fare.

Victoria had something which not often happens there, in the shape of a blizzard. Nanaimo had 18 inches of snow, which had closed the chimney, and baffled the efforts of Captain
 Standbury to build a fire in the grate.
 The captain was bound to have the victory, and after half an hour's persistency in burning a quantity of paper etc., she had the fire going and came out of the conflict triumphant, with black face and hands.

Vancouver reminded me of the days of Noah, for so it must have rained when the floods swept away the in-iquities.

Two of the most magnificent sights of nature I beheld on this trip, was a beautiful view of Mount Baker, and another of Mount Rainier, one 14-000 feet and the other 17,000 feet above sea-level. To see these peaks on a clear day, stretch their towering heads of dazzling whiteness like a pointer into the unfathomable depths of the sky, lifts the soul out of the petty strifes and wranglings of life, into a better conception, of a purer life raised above the sins and vices of the multitude, into the pure atmosphere of holiness, strength, and constancy in itself and a light unto all. Truly God's handiwork sing His praises.

BRUNO FRIEDRICH.

DEVILS LAKE, N. D.—Since writing to the War Cry two weeks ago, we have been gaining ground here in the extent of five souls. One brother declared that his wife was the happiest woman in the city on the night of his conversion. The people are very much interested in the S. A. work here. On Saturday last, the Rev. Mr.
 Newell, of "The Free Methodist Church," was present with us. He

OFF TO SPOKANE!

Adjutant and Mrs. Phillips.

He was for Four Years Printing Manager at the Territorial Centre.

ADJUTANT AND MRS. PHILLIPS,
 now enroute for Spokane, are a couple of Blue and Fire Salvationists, who are sure to be a power for good in the Pacific Province, where the Adjutant goes to fill the position of Chief Assistant.

Physically, they are both only light weights, but they are made of very tough, indurated material, and are prepared to go the full limit of their strength in the general hustle that Major Friedrich has on.

The Adjutant will necessarily be kept much in the office making strokes with the aid of the Provincial ink pot, but Mrs. Phillips' sweet voice will soon be heard along the story of salvation around the Province.

"LOU" AND "JOHN" V.

The Adjutant got saved fourteen years ago when he was a wild tar-of a young fellow. The Army had but just come to his town, Hereford, and he went with the nighty crowd to the old wool warehouse, to see the new religious show. He was one among the 20 at the pentecost-form that night. He often recalls this event, and declares that the Army saved him from a youthful grave.

Johnny Southall was a chum of his then, (they were both printers), and when "Lou" said farewell before going to the Training Garrison, Johnny left the saloon to hear what his old friend would say. That night Johnny got saved, and Cadet Phillips felt that the step to officership he had taken was aimed at God already.

(Staff-Capt. Southall, of the P. O.
 Province, will tell you the balance of this yarn.)
 Adjutant Phillips' throat gave out and he did not see his old friend for nine months in the field, although he stayed till he nearly dropped, but he took his stand as an out and out soldier at his corps, and as treasurer and secretary, occupied the most responsible position the corps could give him.

GOES THE WAY OF ALL FLESH.

He did another good thing, too, he induced Captain Fisher to join hands and heart with him, between them they have filled every local position a corps has to give with the exception of the band.

Eight years ago our two comrades came to Canada, and at Halifax, Windsor, Truro and St. John, they fought in the ranks in the same whole hearted fashion.

Four years ago last September the Army, which till then, had its printing done for it, bought the plant and started to do the work themselves. (Treasurer Phillips, of St.
 John I. working as a printer on the St. John Progress, was looked upon as a likely man to come and manage the Army printing office. He accomplished all, came along, and has filled the position ever since.

The Army has employed on an average upwards of twenty hands. We have our own etching department, steam has been superseded by electricity, and there has come to us a growing outside business founded on the merits of the work done. It being understood that while we do not offer the cheapest rates we give good work for a fair price.

The Adjutant made mention of the kindness of the Commandant and Mr.
 South, and said the Commandant's heartiness had been a special help to him.

"I'm a Salvationist from principle.
 I shall go through to the end. I was called to the S. A. for life." were the Adjutant's concluding words just before leaving one of his old friends on board the cars. God bless and go with them both, in our prayer."

GRAND FORKS TRAINING GAR-RISSON.—The people here love the Army, and help us well in the finan-cial part of the war. God bless them. Since last report, EIGHT PRECIOUS SOULS have cried to God for mercy. Hallelujah. — Cadet Equi-mond.

SCHUBERT.—We had good meet-ings all last week, and on Thursday night a wondrous returned to God, an old S. A. Soldier. He says he has taken up the cross where he laid it down, and is determined to follow Christ all the way. Sunday we worked hard, but none yielded. Ensign arrived to day, looking much better in health, and we believe stronger in the love of God. To-night we had the joy of seeing another precious soul crying for mercy. Hallelujah.—Alex. Bailey, for Ensign Gibbs and Capt. May.

OMIEMEE.—Last night, the Har-mo-nic Hallelujahs band were here. Their music and singing was grand. Everybody seemed to enjoy the meet-ing. At the close a brother and a sister came to Jesus, who in love re-ceived them. We are going on believ-ing for greater victories.—M. K. C.

Monoton Out of the Ruts.

MOXTOON.—Since the staff council we have been peering away at the old devil. SEVERAL SOULS have sought Jesus. On Wednesday night we had an Object meeting, when all the comrades spoke from objects they had in their hands, drawing spiritual lessons therefrom.

On Monday the meeting was led by members of several churches. God came very near. To-night we had a sing-song which proved off already, and on Saturday night we welcome back our Ensign, who has been away touring for two weeks. We're in for victory.—Capt. C. A. Perry.

CAMPBELLFORD.—We can praise God for victory this past week. Cap-tain Huestable with us Wednesday, the 15th. Two souls sought and found pardon. This people of Camp-bellford know how to look after their officers. Two loads of wood sent in all plenty of food each week.—Capt. M. Oden.

RENFREW.—Our meetings last week were a little out of the rut. For a change we have had a few cottage meetings which have been well at-tended and full of power. Captain Sims held a night tented service Saturday night, entitled, "Nan." Was well appreciated. Sunday good meet-ing. Come again Captain Sims! Last night, three souls desiring to be prayed for.—Captain and Mrs. Davies.

ODISSA.—Three recruits sought and found hellfire and liberty. One woman who was bound by Satan, got free and praised God. Saturday night we had a night tented service. We can hear a rattling among the dry bones. Glory—J. T. Robinson, Capt.

MILBROOK.—The Peterborough string band led by Ensign Alward, pulled us a visit, giving a very enjoy-able meeting on Saturday evening. Made all day Sunday. We think that for their sympathy in assisting us to cruise away the corps felt. Some have been to the fountain and are reconciled to God. Since S-D was worked with such grand victory in this part, we believe the same energy can be used in the booming of the War Cry.—Cadet Elsie Latimer.

PETERBORO.—Soldiers' meeting a wonderful time. Thursday night we had a sing-song. Saturday afternoon the Ensign and Captain held an open-air. They had a real good crowd. One precious soul Sunday night. — May Lang.

BRIGHTON.—We Monday night we welcomed our new D.O., Ensign Black-burn. We had a proper time, and wound up with three souls in the fountain.—M. McFarlane, Cadet.

SUBURBY.—We are still driving hard at the devil. We have seen men so terribly convicted that they could scarcely remain quiet in their seats, and yet they have gone away with-out salvation. But we're determined to keep right on. We're believing for a grand break soon.—Alex. Bailey, R. C., for Ensign Gibbs and Capt. May.

HUNTSVILLE.—Thank God we are neither dead nor frozen up here in Muskoka, but God is giving us the victory, with souls in the fountain. Some are taking their places at the fountain. We expect an abundant soon. Although our worthy D. O. reports us as "misleading," if he will shift his course a few points to the northward he can still be still "on deck" determined to "stand by" the old ship.—Capt. Young, Lieut. Rowe.

CLITHAM.—Big things this week and: Capt. Scobell with us; barracks crowded; one soul in the fountain. Proceeds over eighteen dollars. Saturday afternoon the Captain gave the children a lantern service; children highly delighted. Thanks are looking up.—C. Woodard.

PETERBORO.—Victory is ours-while we trust in God. "No retreat-ing, hell defeating, shoulder to shoulder, we stand, God looks down, and glory crowns our conquering band." On Sunday, Capt. Connelock was with us, and here you, Captain. Come again. Two converted themselves to find at the close of the morning meeting. God met with them and sanctified them. In the afternoon, a real old time free and easy. At night a grand salvation meeting, two souls converted.—May.

ST. THOMAS.—On Monday last the band went serenading to get some money to buy wood for the barracks. We raised over $5.00. We had the Creighton with us for Saturday and Sunday. The Ensign sang and played with great effect. Two souls sought and found a pardoning God. We wound up with a testimony meeting. We have been cutting down of late, but have now yes!—H. C. Goodchild.

LASTOWELL.—Soldierlike a grand victory. Meetings good. Brother Canton here for a week, and with his name "Crowded" barracks. Some getting into the War Cry. Some report favors of antiquity. S. D. was two months ago.—Ed. —Lieut. Barker, for Capt. Andrews.

BRAYTON.—Grand meetings in past week. Cottage meeting at Father Bellamy's on Tuesday night. Ensign Scarr with us on Sunday afternoon and night. One elder yielded.—G. for Capt. McIntyre and Lieut. Hunter.

STAPLES.—In this little place we are not dead, neither are we asleep.

INGERSOLL.—Last Sunday night fourteen precious men and women sur-rendered to Jesus. One brother, the first to come, who has never been saved before, woke things up generally by his earnestness. God has been working all round. About 30 converts in the last few weeks, besides a large number of Juniors. Captain Scobell and S. M. Woodard conducted a splendid "Lantern service," with good attendance and splendid effect. This Sunday again has been a heaven-on-earth time. Two precious souls had sought salvation.

A WEEK LATER.—Oyster supper and Musical Bazaar on Thursday. Sisters in unique and attractive costumes. Good crowd and success. Ben-Mason, the "Musical wonder," well ad-vertised for Saturday and Sunday. The town "fairly taken by storm." Sunday, large and appreciative audi-ence. Best day for many months. Four sinners in the fountain.—Minnie Kennedy, Reg. Cor.

Last Monday we had a banquet. After everybody was satisfied the tables were cleared away and we com-menced the jubilee. It was quite a success, conducted by Ensign Wig-gin, and his aids, and the officers and soldiers from surrounding corps. At the close four souls sought salvation. —A. T. for Capt. King.

Hallelujah Jigger!

CLARENVILLE, NFD.—Glory to God after catching three souls with the Hallelujah jigger, we took the Hallelujah net and put one arm on shore where we saw a good sign, but before getting around with the other they all went around the east-ern, but "was" "no give in." We soon stirred up the devil's pot, and the young ones led to batter away before they could fly. Devil nearly crazy.—1.

'Wept Sore'

BIGGS.—Hallelujah. We are still battling for the Lord. On Monday night one young man in our meeting got so deeply wounded could neither leave the meeting or get to the penit-ent form. One of our soldiers went and put his arms around him and cried out with both sobbing and sinner were crying one against the other. The young man got blessedly saved and is today rejoicing in his forgiven-ness.—M. Noel, Capt.

MONTRIAL IL.—Thank God for victory. THREE SOULS recently found salvation, glory to God.

God is working in our hearts and we mean to pull hell's throne to pieces.—W. Goodale, R. cor.

Nimrod's Son Speaketh.

FIRTH.—Sunday night, farewell of Lieut. Howe. A good crowd and good collection, together with deep convic-tion. We had a blessed time at Kew-stead, where a goodly number of a met with God. The Town Bazaar has con-tributed $1.60 towards getting brother instrument for land. God bless them. Several of them used to be Army sol-diers; may they speedily return. Is the prayer of "The King's Son of Nimrod."

WALLACEVILLE.—Yesterday was a real treat to our souls. Flashing at midnight with three souls in the fountain, and a proper Newfoundland dance. Soldiers and converts on fire for souls. Many stepping out of dark-ness into light.—Capt. Maggie Ebsary. Cadet Bella Ogilvie.

GODERICH.—Capt. Brindley, after an absence of five years, with us over Sunday. Everlastingly pleased to see and hear him. On Sunday afternoon he gave his five years' experience as an S. A. officer. At night one soul sought and found the Saviour.—Lieut. Hollett for Capt. Wheelan.

THE EASTERN PROVINCIAL SECRETARY AND A LARGE STAFF AT MONCTON.

Farewells, Auction Sale, and Music, ad lib.

It is something new for Moncton to have such a body of Staff Officers for such a length of time. Part of our geographical position, I guess. At the first meeting, Ensign Des-Prisay was set apart by the Brigadi-er, in the name of our beloved Com-mandant, to go to Bermuda, as a pioneer officer, and raise the banner of the Salvation Army. And as the Ensign put it, "To be a soldier of the Salvation Army that would

and the cause which she had espoused nine years ago." May we perch upon our banner in Bermuda.

Among such a rollup of officers, it would be impossible for one who has not for eight years tried to write a report for the War Cry. (Loud cries of "shame," from the editorial den.—Ed.) To do justice to any of the excellent orations which were de-livered by them, and my descriptive powers are inadequate to do justice to the scenes which were beheld on the platform, in the audience, or even on the street. All I can say is, the whole was a beautiful success. I would like to tell you of the quartette chorus "I'm climbing up the golden stairs to glory," so rendered by the male "Quintette," led on by Adjt. Mc-Gillivray. Allow me to say it was very excellent in a response to the call of Creighton? (travelling) made by friends on the platform and in the audience, of that vocalist? In his su-prime? repeating the same chorus. I am pleased to say, it is easier to climb up the Golden Stairs than to discern the melody of a certain party's sing-ing.

THE PUBLIC SALE OF CHILDREN

was the announcement which brought a good crowd to the hall, and with the innumerable Brigadier, leading off as auctioneer, one of the most im-pressive and interesting meetings I ever attended in the Salvation Army was held.

The Watch-night service was well attended. On New Year's afternoon, the infant child of Ensign and Mrs. Creighton, was dedicated to God and the Army.

A MUSICAL HULLABALOO

was held on New Year's night, and proved the best meeting. The first to come forward was a little boy about five years of age and he has shown ever since he got properly saved. In his testimony a week ago he said, "I used to be a terror to fight, but now I'm saved and I obey all I hear the Lord." This had was followed by seven more, all of whom professed to get right. Twelve soul-sought salvation during the three days' meetings.—J. & M.

BRAMPTON.—On Saturday night had visit from D. O. Ensign Rivers took's presence much life in meeting, and TWO YOUNG MEN volunteered for salvation.

On Sunday we had joy of seeing two more seek God's mercy. Truly God's work is in the place, and a number of converts are taking a bold stand for God. To God we give all the glory. Capt. J. Ferguson, Cadet F. Rogers.

TORONTO (Lippincott street).—Victory here. Poor sinners coming to Jesus every week for deliverance.

Rev. G. L. Powell, of Richmond Hill, with us on Sunday.

Capt. Howcroft, an old soldier of this corps, has been resting here, fare-well on Sunday to take charge of King street corps. Ensign away visiting his district. Believing for his revival.—Cadet Boyle, for Ensign Byers and Capt. White.

SALVATION SONGS.

SONGS FOR SINNERS.

TUNES—"Botsch," B.J. 197; "Why not to-night," B.J. 131; or, "It was on the cross," B.J. 17.

1 What scenes of horror and of dread
Await the sinner's dying bed?
Death's terrors all appear in sight,
Fecundations of eternal night.

His stay in dreadful order lies,
And all his soul with end surprises;
Mount Sinai's thunders stun his ears,
And not one ray of hope appears.

Tormenting pains distract his breast,
Where'er he turns he finds no rest;
Death strikes the blow, he groans and dies,
And in despair and horror lies.

Not to the help of heavenly bliss,
His soul is filled with conscious peace;
A steady faith subdues his fear;
He sees the happy Canaan near.

His mind is tranquil and serene,
No terrors in his heart are seen;
His Saviour's smile dispels the gloom,
And smooths his passage to the tomb.

TUNE—"Where do you journey, my brother?" B.J. 171.

2 God's love is both merciful and tender,
The worth of it never was sold;
Poor soul, hast thou nothing to render?
Thy heart wilt thou even withhold?
His Son left the mansions of Heaven,
No home and no comfort had He;
His side by the soldier was riven,
Oh, say, is that nothing to thee?

Oh, say, is that nothing to thee?
Oh, say, is that nothing to thee?
The wonderful love of King Jesus,
Oh, say, is that nothing to thee?

Backslider, thy God-given chance,
Say, wilt thou continue to spurn?
While Satan still further advances,
And makes it more hard to return?
His pleasure to thee once was hateful,
Thy joys were the joys of the free;
Yet, though thou art faithless He's faithful,
Oh, say, is that nothing to thee?

SONGS OF HOLINESS.

TUNES—"I am coming, Lord," B.J. 56; or, "From every stain made clean" (repeat last two lines), B.J. 81.

3 Away, my needless fears,
And doubts no longer mine;
A ray of heavenly light appears,
A messenger divine.

Tis so comfortable hope,
That calms my troubled breast;
My Father's hand prepares the cup,
And what He wills is best.

If what I wish is good,
And suits the will divine,
By earth and hell in vain withstood,
I know it shall be mine.

Still let them counsel take
To frustrate His decree;
They cannot keep a blessing back,
By heaven designed for me.

Here then I doubt no more,
But in His pleasure rest,
Whose wisdom, love, and truth and power
Engage to make me blest.

TUNES—"Gloria," B.J. 25; "Sovereignty," B.J. 21; or, B.J. 220; or, "Euphony," B.J. 135.

4 Give me Thy all-consuming love,
That brought Thee down from realms above;

A love to govern all my heart,
A love that from all sin departs,
A love that gladly bears the cross,
A love that never through gain or loss.

Give me that love which follows Thee,
Through rough and smooth path marked out by me;
A love that cheers the rugged track,
A love that brings the wandering back,
A love that knows its time forgiven,
A love that turns earth to heaven.

Give me a love o'er sin to weep,
That breaks and saves the wandering sheep;
A love that sets the life on fire,
A love that fights and never tires,
A love that never will retreat,
A love that every foe defeats.

Give me a love that I may give
These all I have, then for Thee live,
A love that saves from selfishness,
A love that is all faithfulness,
A love that trusts and does the right,
A love that glories in the fight.

CORONEL LAWLEY.

FOR FREE AND EASY MEETINGS.

TUNES—"Come, oh come, and go with me," B.J. 24; "No other argument," B.J. 7; or "Auld Lang Syne" (Sacred Hope), B.J. 38.

5 Ye valiant soldiers of the Cross,
Though in this world we suffer loss,
We'll reach fair Canaan's land.

We're soldiering fighting for our God,
Let trembling cowards fly;
We'll stand unshaken, firm, and fixed,
With Christ to live and die.

All earthly pleasures we'll forsake,
While heaven appears in view;
In Jesus' strength we'll undertake
To fight our passage through.

Oh, what a glorious shout there'll be
When we arrive at home;
Our friends and Jesus we shall see,
And God shall say, "Well done."

TUNE—"Saints of God," B.J. 27.

6 Jesus, hear Thy soldiers crying,
"Lord, save the world!"
Pleading for the millions dying,
"Lord, save the world!"

In Thy Army we will stay,
Persecutions shall not daunt us,
Fighting orders we'll obey,
Lord, save the world!

Thou art all our foes defeating,
Lord, save the world!
We're for victory, not retreating,
Lord, save the world!

Lifting Calvary's banner high,
Every sinful stronghold storming,
We will conquer, or we'll die,
Lord, save the world!

Fix Thy Throne in every nation,
Lord, save the world!
Flood earth's kingdom with Salvation,
Lord, save the world!

Then shalt our salvation be,
Then will give us power to conquer,
We are sure of victory,
Lord, save the world!

TUNE—"To the front!" B.J. 60, 9.

In the war! oh, hallelujah,
What a joy it is to be,
Fighting for the world's great Saviour,
On the side of victory!

Jesus calls for soldierly brave,
Souls of strong and true devotion,
Who all else will lay aside,
Living for the world's salvation.

CHORUS.

Warfare making! praise taking;
Bringing the lost to the light;
Hell is dazed, and stands amazed
To see us fight!

Praise to the Lamb!
He is moving us to victory!
Glory to the Lamb!
Glory forever!

In the War! oh, hallelujah!
We will all our powers employ,
Lay them at the feet of Jesus—
What a privilege and joy!

Calvary's love fills every heart—
We will follow where it leads us;
Now, farewell to doubt and fear!
We will go where fighting needs us.

In the War! oh, hallelujah!
Such a chance was never before;
Sound the Army to the soldier—
As a wide and "open door."

Here's a field for highest aims,
Ways for deepest consecrations,
Work and war for one and all,
In the Army of Salvation!

HITS AND MISSES.

The men who move the world are the men
Whom the world can't move.
If a man's walk doesn't keep step with his talk the loss he pays the better.

Trying to get satisfaction out of the world is like trying to get wool out of a pig's back.

Envy, like measles, may remain hidden for a time, but as soon as you get hot it will break out all over your face.

Finding fault is like finding a nest of bad eggs—not worth anything when you've found it.

It is disappointing to have a barn full of onions and never get an egg.
Fear of men causes us to hide sin. Fear of God causes us to hate sin.

celerated from International Headquarters' funds at the rate of $5,000 annually.

SORTERS' SHREDS.

Little by little the world grows strong,
Fighting the battles of right and wrong;
Little by little the wrong gives way;
Little by little the right has sway;
Little by little all longing souls
Struggle up nearer the shining goal.

WANTS IT TREBLY CONDENSED.

ANDREW BAXTER.—Your report is accepted. A fortnightly past card report of telegraphic brevity is near the ideal for corps reporting. Only the latest, most biting bits of trebly condensed news ought to get a show here, but our Editor is so tenderhearted he gives way instead of using the knife (he's too tender, I'd cut 'em into bits, I would), the consequence is a lot of other folk's writing gets squeezed out till another day, then it's stale when it reaches the corps. You take the hint, Brother Andrew, hereafter, I hope the other correspondents will if you don't.

"AND IN HELL HE LIFTED UP HIS EYES, LIVING IN TORTURE."

These words appear in big type across the back of a postal envelope Adjutant Manten owns. Across the front is the column message, "Prepare to meet thy God." Here's another, just as startling:
Boycott the devil; he doesn't give living wages.

The Devil brings out, arises,
again,
recreation,
death,
damnation,
to them that serve him.

God says "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

JAFER ROSE.—Regular correspondent of the CAY. "Not dead yet." Why do you always use that term, Jafes? Why waste your precious time in writing and Eam's precious time in reading what is palmed to everybody who reads your report. It seems to me that you are a good bit in danger of dying or you would not so continually reiterate the stale old tale of not being dead yet. Leave two lines blank in the next report instead of making use of that term, and all our people will appreciate the change.

A QUAKER'S PRAYER.

The following lines were written by Thomas Ellwood, the Quaker friend of John Milton:

O that my eyes might closed be
To what becomes me not to see;
That darkness might possess my ear
To what concerns me not to hear!
That truth my tongue might always tie
From ever speaking foolishly!
That no vain thought might ever rear
Or be conceived within my breast!
Wash, Lord, and purify my heart,
And make me clean in every part;
And when 'tis clean, Lord, keep it so,
For that is more than I can do.

A BUILDING has been secured by Colonel Taylor, in Fredericksburg Alley, Copenhagen, which is to serve as new barracks, central hall, and quarters for the Headquarters staff.

Noway is having a special winter's campaign. January will be devoted to candidates; February, to the restoration of backsliders; March, to the great raid upon sinners; and April, to the making of soldiers.
